

Chapter 1 Sec 1 Outline

I. Peoples of the world

- a. We need to learn about other peoples cultures so that we can understand them better.
- b. Technology has been able to bring people together so they can learn about each other.
- c. A key to getting along better with other cultures is to know more about them.

II. Learning about the world

- a. Everything in life can revolve around social studies.
- b. We can learn about other cultures using the five fields of social studies.

+ III. History and Geography

- a. Historian use things from the past to hep us orient ourselves. History helps us to learn about what is going on today.
- b. Geography has five themes, and it is the study of people places and the environment.

IV. Government

- a. Government makes the laws.
- b.They make sure the laws are carried out.

limited:In a limited government everyone including who's in charge has to follow the laws.

unlimited:In a unlimited government the rulers do not have to follow any of the laws.

V. Economics

- a. Economics is basically all the individual businesses in the market.
- b. People choose what they want to buy.

VI. Kinds of Economies

- a. Different countries have different levels of development.

b.In a market economy individual businesses decide the prices and what they sell.

c. In a command economy the government decides the prices and what the businesses sell.

VII. Culture

- a. People express their cultures in different ways, they may practice different religions or celebrate different celebrations.
- b. Cultural traits are things that make up a persons' culture.